

THE NEW YORK STORE

(ESTABLISHED 1848)

A Card to the Ladies.

Our Opening of Hamburg Embroideries will be of interest to every lady. Anticipating the great demand which is sure to be this season, we placed our orders early, and the goods are now on sale. The styles are all new, and we think much superior to those of former seasons. Ladies will please notice that we have styles in different widths to match, and also to match All Over Embroidery. In this connection we ask that you take particular notice of our stock of "King's Trimmings," all now this season. These trimmings are very handsome and durable, and very much used for trimming White Goods and Underclothing. We invite an inspection of our "Embroideries" and "King's Trimmings," the price of which will be found marked in plain figures on each piece.

Very Respectfully,
PETTIS, BASSETT & CO.

OUR COLORED FRIENDS.

Miss Belle Harvey has returned from Munich.

Professor A. H. Stephens, the pan-orator, has gone to Cincinnati.

Cora Leon Essex, of Cincinnati, will make this city her future home.

Mrs. Ada Washington, of Kentucky, is lying sick at the Park House.

Revival services are still going on in several of our prominent churches.

Mrs. Colman Brown is quite indisposed at her residence, No. 5 Gault street.

Philander Robinson, who has been sick for the last two months, is getting better.

The many friends of Reuben Gibbs, an old citizen, will regret to learn that he is seriously ill.

Miss Susan Bradford, formerly of this city, but now of Martinsville, is visiting friends in the city.

The graduating exercise of Miss Ida Webb, entitled "Perseverance," is very favorably commented upon.

Baptismal services will be conducted by Rev. Thomas Smith, of South Meridian Baptist Church, this afternoon.

Miss Ruth Black, who has been teaching school at Glasgow, Ky., is spending her vacation at her home in this city.

Rev. William Day is in the city, assisting Rev. Thomas Smith, of Meridian Baptist Church, during revival services.

Commissioner William H. Russell, of the World's Fair, left the city the early part of this week en route to New Orleans.

Rev. Richard Beasethie received an invitation from Speaker Jewett to open the House with prayer next Tuesday morning.

The numerous friends of Alfred Taylor will regret to learn that his health has not improved much since the last issue, and fears are entertained for his recovery.

The social given at the Mount Zion Baptist Church last Thursday and Friday evenings was well attended, and a good time was had by those fortunate enough to be present.

Frank W. Smith, of Chicago, will lecture on the subject "In and Out of Andersonville" in this city on the 24th inst., under the auspices of the U. B. F.'s, at their hall on Delaware street.

Quarterly meeting services were held at Bethel Church, on West Vermont street, on last Sabbath. To-day like services will be conducted at Allen Chapel, Rev. H. H. Thompson officiating.

Mrs. Sarah E. Hill read an excellent essay at the Garnett on last Monday evening. Subject: "Woman in Society," which was followed by the reading of an able paper by Dr. Wesley Robbins, entitled "The Future of the Negro."

"The Sepoy Mutiny."

Dr. L. G. Hay will deliver his popular and entertaining lecture upon "The Sepoy Mutiny" in the Tabernacle Church, corner of Meridian and Second streets, on next Tuesday evening, the 17th. Dr. Hay was a missionary in India eight years—Superintendent of the mission press at Allahabad. He became familiar with the languages, customs and religions of the people. He traveled over the entire Ganges Valley, more than 1,500 miles. He was at Allahabad during the Sepoy revolt; he saw the burning of the city; lost all his property, barely escaping with his life. He is able to give a graphic description of the horrors of those fearful days, as also the causes that led to the outbreak.

The Chinese New Year.

The Chinese New Year will close on Monday night, and an entertainment and banquet will be given in the parlors of the Second Presbyterian Church by the Chinese class of the Sunday-school. Two hundred invitations have been issued, those having the banquet in charge finding it necessary to limit the attendance to this number of invited guests.

THE TIME APPROACHING.

Next Tuesday Evening is the Time Set for the Masquerade and Fancy Dress Carnival at Meridian Rink—List of Prizes.

The great event of the amusement season will occur next Tuesday evening at the Meridian Rink, the occasion being a masquerade and fancy dress carnival. No one will be allowed on the skating surface unless in costume, full evening dress, military or other uniforms. There will be two grand marches, the first to open the carnival at 8 o'clock, and the second to pass in review for judgment of costumes at 9:15. The prizes will be awarded by a competent board of judges, and no person in any way connected with the Meridian Rink will be allowed to compete. Following is a list of the prizes offered:

Class 1.—For best lady costume, an elegant toilet set for second best lady costume, a beautiful album for third best lady costume, twelve admission tickets.

Class 2.—For best gent's costume, fine smoking set for second best gent's costume, silk umbrella for third best gent's costume, twelve admission tickets.

Class 3.—Special Costumes: For best Gypsy girl, order for one pair satin skating costume for best Spanish lady, a beautiful mirror for most novel and unique lady costume, twelve admission tickets.

Class 4.—Comical Costumes: For best representation of Chinaman, twelve admission tickets for best representation of Yankee, twelve admission tickets for best representation of old people, twelve admission tickets each for most comical costume, twelve admission tickets.

The management desire that all patrons will use their own idea in regard to costumes as much as possible, as original designs and make up will merit attention.

He Nipped a "Flicker."

Walter Brunner was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Page on a charge of petit larceny.

He nipped a watch from Christopher Loch, a fellow-workman, and pawned it at a West Washington street jewelry store.

The police authorities were compelled to get out a search warrant in order to induce the pawnbroker to give up the ricker.

"Too Much of a Gentleman."

A dude fell into a pond not over three feet deep, but made no effort to rescue himself until a citizen in a blouse, who buys his hats of Ryan, the Hatter, came along and pulled him out. When asked why he didn't crawl out without assistance, he replied that he "was too much of a gentleman to help himself."

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

—TO—

To Every Citizen of This City and State.

After being urgently requested by thousands of our customers, we have decided to add to our large and increasing business a First-Class and Thoroughly Complete

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT.

Our fixtures are now being made. Our stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Hats and Caps is being specially made for us by the best manufacturers of the East, and we expect to open our new department on or about the 28th of THIS Month. As we shall have very little expense attached to this department, we can afford, and will make prices on all descriptions of Hats and Caps much lower than that of regular dealers.

If you need a Hat or Cap it will pay you to wait and see what we can offer you.
